★ OUR NATION'S HISTORY ★

During the month that we celebrate St. Patrick's Day, it's interesting to note that an Irish-born architect (James Hoban) designed and oversaw the building of the White House in Washington, D.C. -- not just once, but twice! Hoban first built the original White House in the 1790's, and he then rebuilt it after the British burned out the building during the War of 1812, as pictured here.
